

THE MONTHLY HOOT

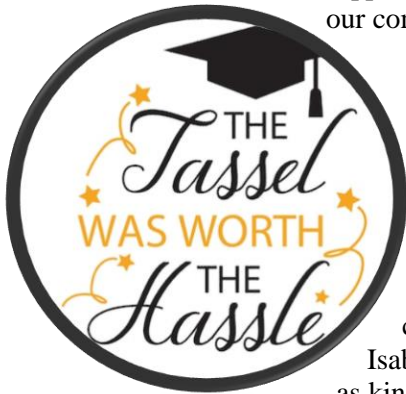

Because We Give a Hoot!
Meet Our Graduates

Issue May 2024

Zoe Biemann stands out with her love for all things pink and her genuine affection for people. Her greatest strength lies in her readiness to help others, and her ability to make friends is a testament to her kind-hearted nature. Described by teachers as in control and kind, Zoe's unique talent is her innate ability to bring happiness to those around her. Whether through her cheerful demeanor or her creative hobbies like singing, dancing, and making people smile, Zoe's presence brightens any room. After graduation, Zoe plans to explore various classes that pique her interest, continuing her journey of self-discovery and spreading joy wherever she goes. As we celebrate the graduating class, let us recognize shining stars like Zoe, whose vibrant spirit and kindness leave a lasting impact on all those they encounter.

In a place where problems can seem big, Erin stands strong with her determination and caring nature. Guided by faith, she helps out at church and speaks confidently on stage. Erin's strength comes from turning tough times into positives, using her disability to make her stronger. She loves swimming and reading, staying both physically and mentally fit. Looking ahead, Erin wants to help kids as a therapist. Teachers say she's passionate and hardworking, inspiring us all with her journey.

Emily Grimes shines with her kindness and inclusivity. With strengths in writing, reading, and a heart of gold, she's achieved being a better reader and joining the student council. Described as kind by her teachers, Emily's uniqueness lies in her dedication to ensuring everyone feels included. Her hobbies include reading and ballet, reflecting her creative and expressive nature. After graduation, Emily plans to become a teacher's assistant, continuing her journey of kindness and support. Her presence reminds us of the power of compassion and the importance of inclusion in our community.

Cameron Kessler stands out. With a love for video games, history, and a strong faith, he's crafting a unique destiny. His ship, The Hand of Anubis, is a testament to his skill and dedication. Refusing to follow the crowd, Cameron's strength lies in his individuality. As he prepares to graduate, his future as a welder or blacksmith shines brightly. Cameron Kessler is not just creating ships; he's charting his own course in life.

Isabella Perez shines as a quiet yet remarkable presence. Her love for drawing has captured the admiration of peers and teachers alike. Graduating is a cherished milestone for Isabella, but it's her cute artwork that she treasures as her greatest accomplishment. Described as kind and quiet by her teachers, Isabella's drawings speak volumes about her creative spirit and thoughtful nature. Beyond her artistic pursuits, Isabella enjoys making friends and traveling with her mom, finding joy in both solitude and companionship. As graduation approaches, Isabella's future may be uncertain, but her talent and kindness ensure she'll leave a lasting impact wherever life takes her. As we celebrate the graduating class, let's remember the quiet achievers like Isabella, whose contributions enrich our lives in profound ways. Thank you, Isabella, for sharing your talents and your journey with us. We eagerly anticipate the next chapter in your story.

Class of 2024 Senior Graduates

Zoe Biemann
Erin Graves
Emily Grimes
Cameron Kessler
Bella Perez
Charlie Redding
Angela Scott
Jayla Woodruff
Caleb Ystma

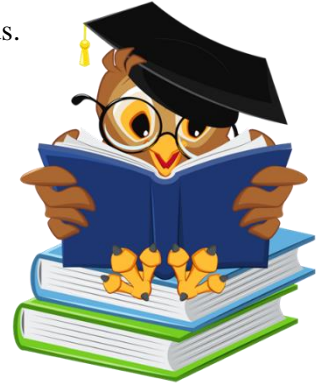

Upcoming Events

- May 4th – Student/Church Picnic
- May 7th – Teacher Appreciation Day
- May 10th - Camp Geneva
- May 14th – Chapel
- May 17th – Graduation

THE MONTHLY HOOT

Because We Give a Hoot!

Issue May 2024

Charlie Redding stands out as an amazing, brave, and smart graduate who defied the odds. A great accomplishment simply said is surviving - being strong and still alive after navigating through the hurdles of adolescence. Described by teachers as challenging, creative, and a problem solver, Charlie Redding possesses a unique ability to observe others. This observant nature, coupled with creativity, sets Charlie apart. In Charlie's spare time, sewing, reading, and finding solace is enjoyable. As a graduate Charlie is looking forward to college, and eager to embrace the opportunities and challenges ahead. Congratulations, Charlie Redding, on your remarkable journey. May your future be as bright as your resilience has shown.

Angela Scott's story stands out. Despite lifelong learning disabilities, Angela's determination propelled her through high school, a feat she cherishes as her greatest accomplishment. Her teachers, particularly Mr. McAllister and Ms. P, played pivotal roles, providing support and teaching in ways Angela could grasp. Described as hardworking and passionate, Angela's creative hobbies—drawing, crafts, and reading—underscore her character. Now, Angela sets her sights on a career as a special effects makeup artist, a path perfectly blending her artistic talents and creativity. With her resilience and focus, Angela's journey is not just hers alone; it's an inspiration to all facing challenges. As Angela embarks on this new chapter, her story serves as a reminder that with determination, anything is possible.

Jayla Woodruff shines as a leader with a heart of gold. As Student Council President for two years running, she's known for her strengths in math problem-solving and spreading happiness. Jayla's greatest accomplishment? Being elected Student Body President twice—an impressive feat that speaks to her leadership and the trust of her peers. Described by teachers as kind and always willing to help, Jayla's unwavering positivity sets her apart. Beyond her studies, Jayla enjoys reading and playing games, striking a balance between work and leisure. After graduation, she plans to become a teacher for kids with disabilities, continuing her journey of service and making a difference in the lives of others. Jayla's leadership and compassion serve as an inspiration to us all as we celebrate the achievements of the graduating class. We look forward to seeing the positive impact she'll continue to make in the future.

At Lake Tech, Caleb's known for fixing engines and dreaming of becoming a cop. When he's not fixing stuff, Caleb's into video games, football, and hanging with his buddy, Jack. Described as caring, protective, and loyal, Caleb's the kind of guy you want as a friend. As he looks to the future, Caleb's skills and heart will make a real difference. From fixing cars to keeping the peace, Caleb's ready for whatever comes his way.

HTES Graduation
May 17th

Where:
St. George's
Episcopal Church
1250 Paige Place
Lady Lake, FL

Time:
5:00 pm

Happy Birthday!

May Birthdays

- May 8th - Bella Perez
- May 26th - Jack O'Rourke
- May 29th - Caleb Ystma

June Birthdays

- June 20th - Anthony Cyr
- June 23rd - Father Jamie
- June 25th - Molly Edwards

July Birthdays

- July 4th - Angelo Aponte
- July 18th - Gavin Skinner
- July 25th - Emily Arterberry

